Diving FAQs

- Lionfish Hunting—Lionfish are not a problem on the Pacific side, so there are no hunting programs at this point.
- Can we store gear with shop between trips? YES (oh thank heavens, right?) There is a dive briefing and we bring our gear. The crew will collect, set up, clean & store for the duration of our trip. Please remember, crews in places like this work hard for your tips.
- Enriched air is available $10.00/fill (Pisces will run tab for shop pmts like these.
- Yes, rental gear is available - see us for rates—but talk to us if you'd rather bring your own—we will be having a packing party!
- Pisces Pros can finish up Open Water & Specialties—but please make these arrangements before the trip.
- As always, trip insurance is highly recommended. See us for details—here is one possibility:
- Snorkeling and ride along is available for non-divers on our boat—the cost is $56/pp—an early signup will ensure your space on the boat.
- Night diving is available—single tank $85.00/pp
- As always, if we get better rates with the shop, we will pass these savings onto you. We will keep a tab with the shop.
